Refund

How can I request a refund for my booking?

You can easily request a refund using our website or mobile app. Here's how:

Website:

Go to the

manage booking

section on our website and navigate to the refund option to initiate the request.

Mobile app:

You can opt for a refund using the 'My Trips

My Trips

' option on our app which is available for Android and iOS users.

How can I request a refund for a flight cancelled by Air India?

In case we cancel your flight due to unforeseen circumstances, you have the option to do the following:

Get a refund:

Request a refund using the

manage booking

section on our website or app.

Reschedule your flight by:

Going to the

self-service re-accommodation

option on our website, OR Clicking on the reschedule link sent to your registered email along with the intimation for the flight cancellation.

How can I get a refund for a flight that I missed?

We consider it a 'no-show' when you miss your flight without prior cancelling or changing your booking.

However, you get a two-hour no-show window during which you can cancel or modify your booking. If you decide to cancel your booking after this period, you will not be eligible to receive any refunds.

The refund and modification amount depends on various factors like the fare type, flight route, the time of cancellation or itinerary change (within or after the no-show window).

You can request a refund by visiting the

manage booking
section on our website.

Till when can I apply for a refund on a booking?

You can apply for a refund up to two years from the date of issuance of your flight ticket.

How do you calculate the refund amount on a ticket?

The amount of money refunded depends on multiple factors, including:

Fare type

Route (international or domestic flights)

Time of cancellation or itinerary change (within or after the no-show window).

Class of travel

For detailed information, you can visit our official

Request Refund

What will be the mode of refund if I cancel a ticket bought at an Air India office?

If you booked your flight at one of our ticketing offices, you would have to head to the same office to request a refund.

Refund account:

Your refund will be credited to the same account used for paying for the booking. However, if that account is now invalid or has been closed, you can share with our agent at the office your new bank details to receive the refund.

Here's a quick link to finding an Air India office near you.

How can I apply for a refund if I booked my flight using a travel agent or third-party websites?

If a travel agent issued your ticket or you booked an Air India flight using a third-party travel website, please reach out to your travel agent or visit the website to help initiate your refund.

How can I raise a refund request for my booking?

Raising a refund request and checking the status of your refund depends on the method you used to book your flight. Here's a quick guide:

On our website or app

If you used our website

or app to book and cancel a ticket, you can check the refund request by clicking 'Status Check on Pending Refund' on our

an Air India office

, you will need to visit the same office to check the status of your refund.

How do I find the case ID for my refund request?

The case ID for your refund request will be sent to the email you used to raise the request.

How long does it take to process a refund and what can I do if there is a delay?

We usually take up to 7 to 10 business days to process your refund requests. Sometimes, there might be a delay in processing due to complication in your booking like incorrect payment methods, inactive bank account, etc. However, our dedicated staff is committed to minimising such delays.

In case don't receive your refund even after 15-20 business days, you can raise your concern on our customer support portal using your case ID.

Can I change my bank account details after requesting a refund?

Your refund will be credited to the account used to make the booking. However, if the account is now invalid or has been closed, we request you to provide us new account details by visiting your nearest Air India office or using our customer support portal

What to do if I have not received my full refund amount?

If you have not received your full refund amount, you can raise your concern using our customer support portal

, and our executive will get back to you within 24 hours.

How much refund will I get if I cancel my partially used ticket?

The refund amount for a partially used ticket depends on your flight's route.

International flight:

One-way fare will be deducted along with any additional penalties against your booking.

Domestic flight:

The sector fare will be deducted along with any additional penalties against your booking.

The additional penalties are calculated based on the following:

If you would like to reschedule a sector of your multicity booking, head to our

manage booking

tool.

Self-service re-accommodation

What is self-service re-accommodation and how can I use this service?

Our self re-accommodation service allows you to rebook your flight in case we have to cancel it under unforeseen circumstances, without paying additional charges. Follow these easy steps to utilise this service:

Getting there:

Head to our

self-service re-accommodation

page. Alternatively, you can click on the link with re-accommodation options sent to your registered email ID.

Enter your details:

Enter your Booking Reference (PNR) and last name as per your original reservation.

Choosing your flight:

A list of 20 flights will be displayed in addition to the original flight with the rescheduled departure times. You can select any one of the flights from the options available and click on 'Book.' Here are some points to remember when choosing the next flight:

These flights will be spread over 75 hours around the original departure time. For instance, if your disrupted flight was scheduled for 0900, you will be shown available flights that depart 3 hours before and up to 72 hours after this time.

Flights with no layovers are listed first, followed by flights with stopovers, in ascending order.

Final steps:

Your booking details will be displayed for you to review. Please ensure all your details are correct before proceeding by clicking 'Continue'.

New itinerary and booking receipt: Once your booking is confirmed, you will receive an email with your receipt and new reservation details.

Who is eligible for self-service re-accommodation?

Here is a quick overview of the eligibility criteria to use self-service re-accommodation to reschedule a disrupted flight.

You are eligible if:

You have a valid e-ticket.

Your reservation has a valid email ID.

The rescheduled flight has seats available in it.

You may not be eligible if:

You are travelling with more than nine people.

Your reservation isn't confirmed.

The rescheduled flight does not fall under a 14-day window from the date of departure of the original flight.

The disrupted flight is not operated by Air India.

When will I receive the self service re-accommodation link?

You will receive the self service re-accommodation link if the disrupted flight is between 6 hours prior to the departure time and up to 14 days of travel.

How will I get my new itinerary?

An updated itinerary with the same PNR as your original booking and a booking receipt will be sent to your email ID after completing the re-accommodation.

Can I change the date of the rescheduled flight after I receive the updated itinerary?

Self-service re-accommodation is a one-time service. You will not be able to reschedule your flight if you have used this service once.

Payment

JCB

I am booking my flight from another country. Will the charges vary?

The fares displayed on the website remain the same irrespective of the currency used for booking.

How can I change the currency when I am paying for my booking?

The currency displayed for your flight fare depends on your departure country. We do not have the option for you to change the currency at the moment.

What to do if the amount is debited from my account, but the ticket is not generated?

If you have been charged twice for your booking or the payment went through, but the booking didn't, you can raise a concern using our customer support portal

, and our executive will respond within 24 hours.

Alternatively, you can contact one of our customer support executives at our dedicated call centres to help you with your concerns.

I was charged twice for my booking. What should I do?

If you have been charged twice for your booking or the payment was unsuccessful, you can raise a concern using our customer support portal, and our executive will respond within 24 hours. Alternatively, you can contact one of our customer support executives at our dedicated call centres to help you with your concerns.

Can I book a flight and pay for it later?

Sorry, but we do not provide the option to book now and pay later at the moment.

Can I get an invoice for the payment I made towards selecting a seat while booking my flight?

Sorry, but we do not provide a separate invoice for selecting a seat on your booking. But you will receive the payment details with your ticket invoice and e-ticket on your registered email.

However, if you have booked a preferred seat, you can access your receipt by visiting our manage booking tool. Additionally, a receipt will be sent to your registered email address.
